

Career Exploration Courses

Summer School 2020

The following are our career course offerings for 2020 Summer School. To register for any of these courses please visit <https://registration.d125.org/default.aspx>.

Careers in Healthcare and Medicine
CAR 31S: June 2-5

(Four-Day Course Offered
Once First Semester in Virtual Format)
9:00 AM - 12:30 PM
Cost: $100
Prerequisite: None
Open to: 10-11-12

So you think a medical or healthcare career is what you'll love? Wondering what area is right for you? This goes beyond just learning about becoming a physician. You'll find out about a variety of careers, including some of the fastest growing and up and coming medical and healthcare professions. Learn what education, skills, and training you need through Zoom webinars or conferences by medical professionals. This is a non-credit course.

---

Careers in STEM
CAR 61S: June 8-11

(Four-Day Course Offered
Once First Semester Virtual Format)
9:00 AM - 12:30 PM
Cost: $100
Prerequisite: None
Open to: 10-11-12

There are thousands of challenging opportunities within the high-skilled world of S T E M (Science, Technology, Engineering , Math ). Examples include careers in biotechnology, civil engineering, cybersecurity forensic science, and more. Students in the class will learn more about available careers and what education, skills, and training are needed through a variety of Zoom webinars or conferences, or professional presentations. This is a non-credit course.

---

Careers in Business
CAR51S: June 15-18
(Four-Day Course Offered
Once First Semester Virtual Format)
9:00 AM - 12:30 PM
Cost: $100
Prerequisite: None
Open to: 10-11-12

Careers in Business tend to be among the most in-demand, diverse, and highest paying in today's marketplace. Business covers a wide-range of occupations including finance, accounting, management, marketing and entrepreneurship. In this class students will learn more about popular and emerging careers through a variety of Zoom webinars or conferences, or professional presentations. This is a non-credit course.

---

Careers in Law
CAR31S: June 22-25
(Four-Day Course Offered
Once First Semester Virtual Format)
9:00 AM - 12:30 PM
Cost: $100
Prerequisite: None
Open to: 10-11-12

Careers in Law covers a broad spectrum of exciting fields within law, government, public safety, and security. Whether you're interested in studying law and becoming an attorney, working for a government agency protecting the wellbeing of the public, or leaning more towards a career in policy and politics, this class is for you. Students will learn more about these professions through a variety of Zoom webinars or conferences, or professional presentations. This is a non-credit course.